Upcoming Dates:

Sept 17: Ch 1 Math test
 Sept 17: Spelling test
 Sept 23: Dismiss at 1

Math:

We will start off the week wrapping up our chapter with end of the chapter review and review with partners and then take the chapter test on Thursday. Please study at home.

Reading:

"The Year of the Rat" will be our story of the week. We will learn about prefixes mis-, pre-, and dis-. We will learn about elements of poetry and point of view as well. We will also do Daily Oral Language activities.

Science:

"Why do objects move the way they do?" will be our topic. We will play a marble game to complete an investigation and learn new science vocabulary.

Writing:

We are going strong on our personal narratives. This week we will work on checking our grammar and punctuation, sentence sense, and we will do some peer proofreading.

Spelling:

Our words this week have the long o or short o sound. We will learn the words and their meanings, learn how many sounds and syllables are in each word, and then learn how the long o or short o sound is made. Our test is on Thursday.

Social Studies:

"The Prairie Plains", "The Traverse Gap Continental Divide" and "Place in South Dakota" will be our topics. We will wrap up the unit and prepare for a quiz next week.

Grammar:

We will review complex sentences and move to correlative conjunctions and interjections.

Penmanship:

We will work on letters u, w, e, l and then work on some paragraph writing.
