Upcoming Dates:

Sept 25: Dismiss at 1

Sept 26: Mason's birth-day

Math:

This week we will learn how to add and subtract whole numbers. We will work on estimation as well. Please practice multiplication and addition/subtraction facts at home.

Reading:

This week we will be working on a new story "Kitoto the Mighty". Along with the story, we will be learning new vocabulary words, a retell strategy, suffixes, theme, author's craft, making connections and how to find the central idea.

Science:

This week in Science we will be learning about properties of sound waves and more about waves. We will learn about technology as well.

Writing:

We have finished up or are finishing our personal narratives. This week we will start on informational text writing. We will discuss what that means to us and how to write it.

Spelling:

Our spelling words this week prove to be a little difficult. They are homophones. The word part "phones" means hear so these words sound the same but are spelled differently. We will what each word means and how to distinguish between words, decoding, blend and read, fluency and reading rate and more.

Social Studies:

We will learn about how "Travel gets faster" with the industrial revolution. "From Atlantic to Pacific" and "War and Changes" will be our discussion this week. With dismissing at 1 on Wednesday, we won't have SD Road trip.

Grammar:

We are working on reviewing proper nouns, singular possessive nouns and plural possessive nouns this week. We will learn the difference between possessive and plural nouns.

Have a great week!

Communication

I am a big proponent of communication. I would like to have open lines of communication between you and me. I get to spend a big part of your student's day with them and I know schedules change from morning to afternoon. If something changes in your schedule, please reach out to me. You can message me in Rooms, email me, call the school, or text me. I will also reach out to you if we have anything we need from our end at school as well. Please keep an eye on rooms and my website for updates as far as spelling lists, newsletters, schedules, homework, and more. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me. Have a great day!
